- 11:00 – 12:30 P.M. Enrollment Management Welcome and Introductions: The Higher Education Accountability Movement and What It Means for Enrollment Managers

How are federal and state policies, as well as pressure from campus leaders, parents, and students, around tuition prices and educational outcomes likely to affect new student recruiting and expand the role of enrollment managers in driving institutional success? Our opening session will provide an opportunity for members to introduce themselves, followed by a panel discussion of the so-called “accountability agenda” and its implications for enrollment management, with emphasis on balancing mandates to increase retention with the necessity of recruiting a more diverse student body.
- 12:30 – 2:00 P.M. Lunch
- 2:00 – 3:00 P.M. Marketing and Branding Across Your Institution: How Fundraisers and Enrollment Managers Can Work Together Effectively (joint session with the Development Learning Collaborative)

An institution’s Enrollment Management and Development offices are the key players in marketing and branding, yet few institutions effectively coordinate their efforts, threatening to undermine the efficacy of their branding initiatives and waste resources. In this session, the Education Marketing Group will share case studies of coordinating branding across the institution and best practices for promoting similar cooperation between your Development and Enrollment Management offices.
- 3:00 – 3:30 P.M. Networking Break
