

We help academic institutions finance, launch & operate successful online programs.

EmbanetCompass is the recognized and proven leader in online higher education services. We have 19 years of experience supporting the academic missions of our university partners through their online programs. We currently support 121 online degrees across 36 different academic partners.

Our model is extremely flexible and customized. This allows us to work individually with each academic partner and program in the way that works best for the university.

Our Services

- + Market Research and Program/Institution Readiness
- + Program Funding
- + Marketing to Prospective Students
- + Student Recruitment
- + Curriculum Model Design

- + Course Design and Development
- + Faculty Support and Training
- + Management of the Online Learning Environment
- + Student Retention
- + Plan for Increasing Competitiveness

Our Academic Partners

Collaborating to form lasting partnerships.

 $R \cdot I \cdot T$

Why Choose EmbanetCompass as Your Online Partner?

- + We have done more online program partnerships than anyone in the industry.
- We have the most experience working with top tier, highly selective institutions on their online programs.
 We understand your quality, brand, mission and cultural requirements.
- + We leverage experience gained through our 121+ program partnerships to help ensure your online programs are successful.
- + We have a flexible business model with custom partnerships there is no one size fits all solution.

- + We utilize a delivery approach with a dedicated crossfunctional program team ensuring cultural alignment and continuity with our university partners.
- + We are technology neutral and can work with the technologies, systems and LMS that you already have in place or we can host one separately for you.
- + We are a financially invested partner that shares risk.
- + The university makes final decisions related to faculty, course content, student admissions and marketing.
- + The university and faculty own all course content in accordance with your internal intellectual property policies.

